

- How is conflict in your relationships an indicator that you are diverting love and affection from where it should go to worldly things?
- What does James call people “adulterous”? Where does that language come from?
- What does James say will happen when you resist the devil? (See also Colossians 1:13)
- Look at the list of actions James tells his readers to take:
 - Submit to God
 - Resist the devil
 - Draw near to God
 - Cleanse your hands
 - Mourn and weepTalk about what each of those things would look like in your life.
- Discuss the difference between confrontation and judgment? What kind of talk is James condemning, and what are we to say to a brother who is sinning?
