Being a blended family for 32 years, George and Carrie understand the complexities of a step family. Every stage of life adds another element. Stepfamily's are dear to our heart so with that we became active in leading the Step family classes. It was with this group of, soon to be step families, early into step families, and full into the blended family we became aware of the need for small groups made up of stepfamilies. This complex family dynamic has shown to be better understood by those walking a similar path. A difficult path but with God can be navigated. We both met at a party, I was playing an acoustic guitar when Patti walked into the room and someone said she played the flute so we jammed together. Two years later we were married. Both of us stay as busy as ever loving to volunteer in ministry and other areas of the community. We have been Navigators at Clear Creek Community Church over 10 years. We love to travel and visit friends and family around the country along with hiking in the National Parks. We still play guitar and flute :-)

Time: 7:00pm - 8:30pm

Location: Kemah Village

Anthony: I'm single, own a small business, coach my niece's U12 soccer team, & serve as a technical producer on the tech arts team. I know, it sounds fancy like I'm in charge of something. But really I just wear a headset and work alongside a talented team that runs the lights, audio, and TV screens that make our services so engaging and slick. I enjoy reading and movies as well as woodworking/furniture building as far as hobbies go. My pet is a 5yr old cockatiel. Coming out of an awesome men's group for the past 2yrs certainly helped me to see the tremendous value in a group of men coming together to study God's word, both to know Him more fully and also to bring others closer to Him, and walk with one another in support through life's challenges & triumphs.

I am Darren Whitmarsh and have been a member of CCCC for 15 or so years. I have led Celebrate Recovery here at CCCC for several years and have been clean and sober for 13 years. I presently lead and serve on the setup/teardown team at E96. I have a beautifully blended family with a wife of 10 years and two daughters, 25 and 27 years. Anthony and I are looking forward to facilitating a group of men this fall and growing with them in our relationship with Christ.
